

JAMAICA

No. 02 – 2018

I assent,

P.L. Allen

Governor-General.

5th day of March, 2018

AN ACT to absolve certain National Heroes, namely, The Right Excellent Samuel “Sam” Sharpe, The Right Excellent George William Gordon, The Right Excellent Paul Bogle, and The Right Excellent Marcus Mosiah Garvey, their supporters, sympathisers and participants by association, and other freedom fighters, from criminal liability arising from participation in the 1760 Tacky’s or St. Mary Rebellion, the 1831 to 1832 Christmas Rebellion, the 1865 Morant Bay Rebellion and the 1929 campaign of the People’s Political Party, respectively, and to provide for connected matters.

WHEREAS many persons of African descent, both enslaved and freemen, fought against slavery, and economic, political, racial and social inequality and as a result contributed to the self-determination of Jamaica and her people:

AND WHEREAS these persons of African descent were led by notable persons, some of whom have since been recognised as having rendered

to Jamaica service of the most distinguished nature which contributed to Jamaica's self-determination and who have been conferred with the Order of National Hero:

AND WHEREAS the National Heroes are The Right Excellent Samuel "Sam" Sharpe, The Right Excellent George William Gordon, The Right Excellent Paul Bogle and The Right Excellent Marcus Mosiah Garvey:

AND WHEREAS there were several men and women who believed in and followed the National Heroes during the 1831 to 1832 Christmas Rebellion, and the 1865 Morant Bay Rebellion:

AND WHEREAS several persons believed in and followed one such notable freedom fighter, Tacky, during the 1760 Tacky's or St. Mary Rebellion:

AND WHEREAS the laws in force during those times were unjust and oppressive and resulted in the acts of these persons being labelled as criminal acts:

AND WHEREAS the National Heroes and freedom fighters exercised their inalienable right to resist such unjust laws and oppression:

AND WHEREAS there were also persons who did not participate in these activities but were labelled criminal participants by association, being persons of African descent, and similar class and socio-economic background as the notable freedom fighters, National Heroes, their supporters and sympathisers:

AND WHEREAS in their fight for freedom, equality and self-determination these National Heroes and their supporters and sympathisers and participants by association were labelled as rebels, arrested, tried, convicted of crimes against the Crown and subjected to harsh punishment, including execution:

AND WHEREAS only some of these persons and their criminal records can be accounted for at this time, while the remaining identities and names may be forever lost to history:

AND WHEREAS it is desirable to recognise the heroism and contribution of these persons and absolve them from the criminal liability in respect of the aforementioned events in seeking to address the wrongs committed upon these persons:

[March 5, 2018]

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ENACTED by The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Representatives of Jamaica, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the National Heroes and Other Freedom Fighters (Absolution from Criminal Liability in Respect of Specified Events) Act, 2018. Short title.

2.—(1) The persons identified in column 1 of the Schedule are hereby absolved from all criminal liability in respect of the events specified, in relation to those persons, in column 2 of the Schedule. Absolution from criminal liability for certain events. Schedule.

(2) Where an official document contains any information suggesting that a person referred to in subsection (1) was cautioned, charged, arrested, prosecuted, convicted, or sentenced, for an offence in respect of an event referred to in subsection (1), the holder of that record shall include with that information a notification that, pursuant to this Act, the person has been absolved of criminal liability in respect of the offence.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), “official document” has the meaning assigned to it by section 3 of the Access to Information Act.

3. The Minister may, by order, subject to affirmative resolution, amend the Schedule. Amendment of Schedule. Schedule.

4. This Act binds the Crown. Act binds the Crown.

5. This Act shall not be construed as giving any right or entitlement to, or imposing any liability on, any person, or as affecting the prerogative of mercy. Savings.
